MRS, EAGLE SUES FOR SEPARATION.

CHARGES OF CRUELTY MADE AND DENIED-COUNTER AVERMENTS IN REGARD

TO PROPERTY. An application was made to Judge Giegerich in the Court of Common Pleas yesterday by Emily F. Eagle for alimony and counsel fees pending the trial from Clifford Faithout Eagle. Mrs. Eagle is a daughter of Moses B. Taylor, who is now dead, and her husband is a son of a former commodore in the Navy. They were married on October 24, 1887, the Church of the Incarnation, by the Rev. Arthur Brooks. They separated on June 1, 1895. Mrs. Eagle charges that her husband has treated her in a cruel manner and abandoned her and left her in a cruel manner and abamoned her and left her without means. She says that she has three children. The eldest lives with her at the Castle Hotel, in Amsterdam-ave., and the younger children are staying at Walton, N. Y., with friends. The plaintiff says that her husband is a member of the New-York bar and has a good practice. In her complaint she avers that until her husband left her they lived at No. 323 West One-hundred-andthird-st., which was her property. She alleges that the defendant induced her to give him the deeds to wo estates owned by her in Denver, Col., on the pretence that he would sell the property and give her the proceeds. Instead of doing so he mortgaged the estate for $3,500, which Mrs. Eagle says he red, and which, in addition to a small mortgage previously existing, renders the property of little She also says that her husband, under his

Mr. Eagle denies all his wife's charges and says that she has an interest in her father's estate, which is valued at $20,000. He declares that he has always treated his wife kindly, that he owns no property in New-York, and that his property in Colorado has been taken from him by his creditors since the beginning of this suit.

Decision was reserved.

or thought was on the vessel. Captain Losee, upon the receipt of this letter, deded that he did not wish to continue longer in business with the doctor, so he consulted his law-yer, and took proceedings to dissolve the copartneryer, and took proceedings to dissipate the partnership was denied, and it was declared that Dr. Peterson had only hired Captain Losee. Mr. Stewart, speaking of the letter referred to, said that his client must have been either a knaw or a fool when he wrote it. An affidavit was presented by Dr. Peterson, in which he said that at the time the letter was written he was very much vexed, and hardly knew what he was writing.

Judge O'Brien reserved his decision.

DIVORCE AND ALIMONY FOR MRS. CORBETT. Judge Gildersleeve, in the Superior Court, signed a decree yesterday granting Mrs. Ollie Corbett an absolute divorce from her husband, James J. Corbett, the puglist. The decree is signed upon the recommendation of the referee, Edward Jacobs, who reported that the evidence showed that Corbett had been guilty of improper conduct, with seen guilty of improper conduct with a woman decree provides that Corbett shall pay his wife £ .200 a year allmony in two instalments, half diocese of Central Pennsylvania, the Right Rev. H. on May 1 and half on November 1, each and every L. POPULAR SATURDAY NIGHT FIREWORKS. The Saturday night programme of fireworks arranged for this evening in Pair s Outdoor Theatre, at Manhattan Beach, to follow the great "War" spectacle of Japan and China, will be of the pop-ular order. The wheelmen who will be present at the meet during the day will have an opportunity of seeing how they might look in fire, as a unique device will show a cycler in five, mounted wheel, for a run on a wire extending from stage to the top of the diver's mast.

A VERDICT OF ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING. Coroner Fitzpatrick yesterday held the inquest in the case of Bridget Gregg, who was shot and killed on Thursday by Martha Reilly at No. 271 West Fortleth-st., while the latter was carelessly handling a revolver.

Mrs. Reilly, who was arrested Thursday but paroled until the inquest, wept during the entire proceedings. The jury returned a verdiet of accidental death, and Coroner Fitzpatrick discharged the prisoner.

CLAIMS AGAINST JOHN HOEY'S ESTATE. CREDITORS ACCEPT A PLAN SUBMITTED BY THE TRUSTEE, WHICH MEETS THE AP-PROVAL OF THE HEIRS.

Charles Edward Davidson presided yesterday at a meeting of the creditors of the estate of John Hoey. which was held at the Astor House. The meeting decided to accept a plan for the settlement of the claims against the estate which was submitted by Wilbur A. Heisley, the trustee.

In accordance with this plan a committee, com-posed of E. B. Mullen, Daniel Edwards, W. S. B. Parker and Charles Edward Davidson, was appointed to meet at Hollywood next Tuesday to confer with the heirs and place a valuation on the lots, to be turned over to the creditors in payment of their

In explaining his plan Mr. Heisley said that the estate is not bankrupt, but the income derived from it, while sufficient to meet the interest on mortgages, would not permit him to declare any dividend to the creditors. His plan, which meets with the approval of Mrs. Hoey and the other heirs, is to apportion land in settlement of individual claims. He also proposed to sell sufficient property to raise $100,000 with which to obtain releases of the mortgages on the property which it is proposed to allot to the creditors, so that their titles will be allot to the creditors, so that these winders and the country of the estate are $1,683 36, against which are the following charges: Interest on mortgages, $2,566 62, taxes, $4,000, maintenance, repairs and insurance, $15,000. Mr. Heisley said that he had seen creditors representing about $50,000 of claims, and the apportionment plan meets their approval.

The claims secured by the trustee's deed, with interest, amount to about $200,060, and the principal due on mortgages aggregates $264,500.
